

MR. AND MRS. JOHN G. FORD
... To Make Home Here

Ford-Worland Vows Spoken

Nativity Catholic Church was the setting for the nuptials Saturday of Betty Jean Worland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Worland of 2473 W. 230th St., and John G. Ford of 1925 Crenshaw Blvd.

The bride chose a blue suit with white accessories for her 9 a.m. wedding. Her single attendant, Charlotte Ford, wore a Navy blue suit.

Leonard Lee Phillip Reid Jr. served as best man for the bridegroom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ford of Hartford, Conn. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Following the wedding, a reception was given in the YWCA clubhouse. The couple, both of whom attended Torrance High School, will make their home at 1925 Crenshaw Blvd. The bridegroom was a 1951 THS graduate and is working at Air Research.

INCREASES IN SIZE

Torrance BPW to Become Part of New Club District

Los Angeles Business and Professional Women's Clubs will add two districts during the convention April 26 and 27 at the Huntington Hotel, Pasadena.

Because of its increased size, the Los Angeles group has found it necessary to divide into two additional districts, seven and eight. Torrance will become a part of District 8.

Announcements of the convention were made at the recent district meeting in Los Angeles attended by Mrs. Zada Ramsey, president of the Torrance group and Mrs. Billie Dunning, Jean Davis, Virginia Beck and Helen Williams.

District President Mona Meyer announced that Katherine Adams Stoll, advocate general and Mrs. Ivy A. Grace, California first vice president, will be speakers at the convale.

Arvilla Owens of Torrance will be in charge of registration, Martha Williams of El Monte is general chairman and others in charge will be Margaret Richards of Norwalk and Bessie Van Dorn of Hollywood.

District eight's election board will include Helen Williams, judge; Margaret McGill, inspector; Lavon Olsen and Mildred Weaver, tellers.

Twenty-one members and guests attended the BPW Club's recent dinner in Long Beach hosted by Mrs. Dorothy Rogers, Stella Mathery and Miss Mary Lou Tucker. Speaker was Mrs. Ruth Borden, who gave an illustrated lecture on her recent trip to the continent.

Fern Ave.-Greenwood PTA Unit Hears Judge Ida May Adams On Founders' Day

"I don't believe there was ever a child who had any business in a court of law," said Judge Ida May Adams of Los Angeles when she addressed members of Fern Ave.-Greenwood PTA during their Founders' Day meeting Thursday in the school cafeteria.

Introduced by City Judge Otto B. Willett, currently with Division 11 of Los Angeles Municipal Court, Judge Adams urged parents to work toward removal from the state statute books a law making it felonious for a parent to inflict injuries on a child.

In introducing the speaker, Judge Willett pointed out that Judge Adams has served for more than 20 years in the "world's busiest court." She holds a lifetime teacher's certificate, was graduated from high school at the age of 12 and from college at 16. She was a school administrator while still in her teens and helped found the Adams School for underprivileged children needing special assistance.

The woman jurist praised the PTA for bringing together parent and teacher for the good of the child. She feels the elementary teacher is most important in the school, but that mother should exert primary influence over the child.

Girl Scouts from Troop 1299, a PTA-sponsored unit, led the pledge of Allegiance and sang Scout songs. Rev. Paul Wenske of First Lutheran Church read the invocation.

Mrs. G. G. Grubb presided over the business session when Mrs. G. J. Derouin and Mrs. V. T. Vanderpool were honored. Elected to serve on the nominating committee were Mrs. R. E. Murphy, A. R. Thistle and J. L. Hinds.

Fourth grade room mothers, headed by Mrs. Gordon Walker, served refreshments.

ANN MONDOR
... Engaged

Couple Plan April Wedding

Making plans for a wedding April 20 is Ann Phyllis Mondor, whose name was added to the list of brides-elect this week with her betrothal to Robert Lou Begano.

Formal announcement of the engagement was made by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Mondor of 2765 Gramercy Ave., parents of the bride-to-be. A graduate of Torrance High School in 1950, Miss Mondor is attending El Camino College.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Begano of Starkville, Colo. and is serving with the U. S. Navy.

Del Amo Association To Choose New Slate

New officers will be elected at the next meeting of the Del Amo Civic Association Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jensen, 1633 W. 228 St. New residents of the Del Amo community are invited to attend and add their support to the group. Coffee will be served.

KANSAN IS GUEST

Mrs. Chelcia Shelby, clerk of the district court at Holton, Kan., is a house guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Routh, granddaughter, Cindy, and son, Paul Shelby, at the Routh home 1317 Maple Ave., in Torrance Gardens.

Her current visit marks Mrs. Shelby's first trip to the west coast.

Silver Tea To Compliment District Head

Planning a silver tea to honor Mrs. Alan W. Young of South Gate, president of Los Angeles District, California Federation of Woman's Clubs are Mrs. Edward T. Sexton of Torrance, chairman of amenities and courtesy, and Mrs. Earl E. Tibbot of Los Angeles, chairman of hospitality.

The festive affair will begin at 1 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 28, at District headquarters, 2103 S. Hobart Blvd., Los Angeles.

District presidents, club amenities, courtesy, hospitality and federation chairmen have been bidden. Amenities and hospitality departments will meet prior to the tea with Mrs. Joseph C. Wenger of Los Angeles, state chairman of public relations.

Also bidden are General Federation and State Federation chairmen residing in the Los Angeles district, and members of the district executive board.

'Mambolecas' To Present Dance Event

Mambolecas, a service club at Torrance High School open to all girls who can say its brief motto "en Espanol" and are interested in Latin culture, will present a "Round the World Platter Party" Monday for faculty and students at the school.

Traveling from East Los Angeles to the romantic spots of South America, the program will present bits of the life in each place through dance and song.

Armida Carrizosa is president of the club, sponsored by Miss Carmalita Rous, life science teacher, and Mrs. Joanna Garver, girls' advisor. Other officers are Billie Carrizosa, Annie Mora, Lola Melgosa, Josie Perama and Virginia Jimenez.

Dwight Hanna, an 11th grade student, is directing the program. Teachers assisting are Desmond Wedberg, drama; Abe Milstein, music and Wayne Hilton, radio.

In addition to Mambolecas officers participants will include Clara Rio, Belle Baca, Rose Marie De La Cruz, Shirley Ferrer, Dora Viveros, Nadine Vasquez, Gloria Montjano, Rachel Alvarez, Phyllis Alvarez, Virginia Sezate, Alice Ybarra, Joe Rios, Armida Molinar, Manuel Burgara, Buzz Zamora, Eddie Alvarez and Virgil Bremestahl.

Soroptimists See Effect of Mobilization

National Defense mobilization and its effect on California and the employment problems was portrayed graphically in a movie, "California Manpower and National Defense," shown last evening to members of Harbor District Soroptimist Club.

Area training officer Harold Straight showed the film. Narration was done by D. H. Roney, field chief of the California Department of Employment.

Stress in the film was placed upon the growth of California as an industrial state. Predictions of manpower needs in the future concluded it.

Final plans for the program were made at the Soroptimists' luncheon meeting in San Pedro YWCA last week. Mrs. Mae Leake presided in the absence of Mrs. Hazel Scott Coomers. The group's next dinner meeting was slated for Feb. 27 in the home of Mrs. Ruth DeHaven. Several members of the Harbor Club will journey to Whittier for a district meeting honoring regional director Ruth White.

TOWN & COUNTRY T. V. & APPLIANCES

We are so excited -
WE ARE STANDING ON OUR HEADS
— Thanks to you!

We didn't believe anything like this could ever happen to us!

The way folks came in and introduced themselves, shook our hand, sent us flowers... you would have thought about the biggest thing that ever happened to Torrance was when we opened our doors.

Of course, it was a BIG thing for us... but we had no idea people would make us feel so welcome and glad we came to this wonderful city.

Even our competitors... old established Torrance merchants who sell television and appliances, joined the welcome. And gosh!... many of them, even bought advertisements in the Torrance Herald to tell everybody how glad they were we had come to town.

For all of this we are grateful and humble and proud.

We Especially Wish to Express Our Appreciation to.....

- LAWSON'S JEWELERS
- TORRANCE TEE VEE
- BURKE'S BARGAIN SPOT
- KALE'S CHILDREN'S SHOP
- TRESKE'S MEN'S SHOP
- ALTER REALTY & INSURANCE
- FRANK'S FURNITURE
- STAR FURNITURE COMPANY
- GEORGE'S MEET'N PLACE

... certainly it is friendly competition and cooperative spirit between fellow merchants which will develop Torrance as a great shopping center.
